Boca Raton Regional Hospital and UnitedHealthcare Renew Network Relationship

UnitedHealthcare members enrolled in employer-sponsored, individual, Medicare Advantage and Medicaid plans have restored access to Boca Raton Regional Hospital

BOCA RATON, Fla. — November 15, 2019 — Baptist Health South Florida and UnitedHealthcare have reached an agreement to renew the network relationship for Boca Raton Regional Hospital, effective December 1, 2019. The new multi-year relationship ensures UnitedHealthcare members enrolled in employer-sponsored, individual, Medicare Advantage and Medicaid plans have continued network access to Boca Raton Regional Hospital.

"Our priority is ensuring the people we serve have access to quality, affordable health care," said Greg Reidy, CEO of UnitedHealthcare of Florida. "We appreciate the patience and support of our customers and members as we worked on their behalf to reach an agreement with Boca Raton Regional Hospital, an important health care provider in the Boca Raton area."

"Our new contract is a testament to the strong, longstanding relationship we have with UnitedHealthcare," said Eric Shatanof, corporate vice president and chief managed care officer, Baptist Health South Florida. "We are pleased we can strengthen our commitment to the community by ensuring access to the high-quality health care at Boca Raton Regional Hospital."
